SENIORS

NOT TOO LATE TO REGISTER FOR COUN 270 @ SRJC

Get ready for next year by taking Coun 270, a three-day course in March or April that introduces you to college and helps you get ready to register for the fall semester. Participation can also give you higher priority registration next fall.

NAVIANCE HIGHLIGHT: SCHOLARSHIP SEARCH

Looking to start your scholarship search? Naviance has TWO scholarship lists to help you get started.

The Scholarship List

This list includes any scholarships that have been entered by our high school, including local, regional, and some national scholarships.

Everything on this list is also in the Scholarship Binder in the CCC, but this list includes the links to the online applications for easy use.

The National Scholarship Search

This tool uses personal information you provide in a "Profile" questionnaire to match you with national scholarships. You can change your profile at any time to get different matches. Click into the scholarship to read a summary and access a direct link to the scholarship webpage. This is an easy way to explore national scholarships without signing up on an outside scholarship website. Need help? Stop by the CCC!

FAQ: How do I find scholarships? Start early on researching scholarships!

- Make sure to check the college campuses you have applied to (or want to apply to in the future) to see if they have scholarships you can apply for now. EXAMPLE: Most CSU campuses, like Sonoma and Chico, have scholarships incoming freshmen can apply to when they are still in high school. You often have to apply BEFORE you even know if you've been accepted!
- Use a tool, like Naviance's Scholarship List, to find individual scholarships locally and nationally. Most sources advise starting with local scholarships, then regional, and then national. Make sure you pay attention to due dates!
- Come get more support at a scholarship workshop this month! Sign up here: <http://bit.ly/scholarshipworkshop20>
