Admission & Testing Updates

UCs, CSUs, and others announcing Covid-19 admission changes

- UCs have posted revised admission guidelines, such as accepting CR/NC grades for the spring 2020 semester, later date for final transcripts from current seniors, and waiving testing requirements for the class of 2021. More updates on the UC Info page on the virtual CCC site (bit.ly/rchsccc).
- CSUs have posted revised admission guidelines, such as accepting CR/NC grades for the spring 2020 semester, later date for final transcripts from current seniors. They are currently reviewing their testing (ACT/SAT) requirements for future applicants. More updates on the CSU Info page on the virtual CCC site (bit.ly/rchsccc).
- Many other four-year institutions (private and out of state) have similarly announced changes to admission requirements, including going test-optional and extending deadlines for transcripts and admission decisions. Check the admission websites for campuses for the most updated information. Information on test-optional schools (including those that have changed this recently) is available on the College Search page on the virtual CCC site (bit.ly/rchsccc).
- SATs and ACTs have been rescheduled and/or canceled until June. See the most updated information on testing on SAT/ACT page on the virtual CCC site (bit.ly/rchsccc).

Fall 2020 Registration Updates

- The SRJC Summer Schedule will be released 5/15 (tentative).
- Fall 2020 SRJC Registration for high school students begins 6/8. See exact dates for graduating seniors and dual enrollment students on the SRJC page on the virtual CCC site (bit.ly/rchsgcc).

Dual Enrollment Process

- If you are a current 9th-11th grader planning to take a Summer or Fall 2020 course at the SRJC, you will need to complete the dual enrollment form before registration begins. Start by reaching out to your counselor.
- Dual enrollment requests must be made by 5/11 for the summer courses, and by 6/1 for fall courses. All the steps are available on the SRJC page on the virtual CCC site (bit.ly/rchsgcc).

Graduating Seniors

- If you are a current 12th grader planning to attend the SRJC next year, it is not too late to complete your SRJC steps. It is important to complete your applications and do an online orientation this spring. See these steps on the SRJC page on the virtual CCC site (bit.ly/rchsgcc) and reach out to Ms. Hazlewood to set up a virtual appointment as needed.
- It is also not too late to complete your financial aid and be eligible for the SRJC for FREE program. See more info on the Financial Aid page.
